

Keller O.K.'s Poles on Avenue.
There is no necessity for removing poles on Connecticut avenue, Engineer Commissioner Charles Keller declared yesterday. The agitation for their removal grew out of the death Saturday night of a speeding autoist whose machine crashed into one.

WORK ON TURNPIKE FROM ALEXANDRIA OPENS ON MONDAY
Fairfax Courthouse Road Construction Requires 200 Laborers.
PLAN FOR TEMPLE
Samuel H. Beach, Veteran Railroad Employee, Dies in City Hospital.

THE HERALD BUREAU.
A. S. Doniphan, Editor.
ALEXANDRIA, Va., May 31.—Contractors Lane Brothers, of Alexandria, Va., will begin work of constructing the turnpike road between this city and Fairfax Courthouse, a distance of eleven and one-third miles, next Monday. The contractors expect to have the work completed by Christmas. One force will work from Fairfax Courthouse toward Alexandria, and the second force between Annandale and Fairfax.

The necessary equipment will arrive here by Friday, and a camp will be established at Annandale, six miles south of Alexandria. The contractors will bring here more than 100 laborers, and equally as many more will be employed as soon as they begin work.

The road will be sixteen feet wide, of concrete, with stone base. A sixty-foot steel bridge will be erected over Holmes Run, four miles from here. The actual cost of the work will be $324,000.

The Cranford Paving Company, of Washington, today started soundings at George Washington Park preparatory to putting steam shovels in operation for excavating in connection with the erection of the proposed $2,500,000 temple of the George Washington Masonic National Memorial Association. The officials of this association hope to lay the cornerstone of the structure late this year. The grounds surrounding the temple are to be greatly beautified by a landscape architect upon the completion of the temple.

Samuel H. Beach, 47 years old, unmarried, died at 7:30 o'clock this morning at the Alexandria Hospital following a ten days' illness due to heart trouble. The deceased was employed as paying teller in the general offices of the Southern Railway Company in Richmond. Mr. Beach was a native of Richmond, Va., and is survived by his mother, four sisters and a brother. For the past thirty years he had been employed by the Southern Railway offices. Mr. Beach was a member of Andrew Jackson Lodge of Masons, Mount Vernon Chapter, Royal Arch Mason, Old Dominion Commandery, Knights Templar, and Acca Temple, Mystic Shrine. The body was taken to the residence of Frank Warfield, 220 South Fairfax street, from whence the funeral will take place at 10:30 o'clock Friday morning. Services will be conducted by Rev. E. V. Regeister, D. D., pastor of the M. E. Church South. The body will be shipped to Richmond for burial.

About the middle of June it is expected the work of building the new bridge over the railroad tracks on the street extending, will be completed and traffic on this reopened. The bridge is being erected for the R. F. and P. Railroad. The new bridge is eighteen inches higher than the old bridge. Permission for this work was obtained several months ago by the railroad company from the city council.

The funeral of Mary Virginia Poss, daughter of Mary E. Poss, took place this afternoon from the residence of her father, 328 South Washington street. Services were conducted by Rev. Dr. John Lee Allison, pastor of the Second Presbyterian Church, and burial was in the Presbyterian Cemetery.

Arrangements have been made for a garden party which will be given Friday evening on the lawn of Lee Camp Hall in honor of the birthday of Jefferson Davis. An address will be delivered by Representative W. D. Upshaw, of Georgia, and music will be by the high school orchestra.

The first annual excursion of the Cardinal Athletic Club was given tonight on the steamer St. Johns down the Potomac River.

HERRICK-FAHY AIR STUNT OFF DUE TO MEMORIAL INCIDENT
Disciplinary Action Is Expected Following Flight During President's Speech.

There will be no Herrick-Fahy air stunt, death-defying, airplane flight—not in Washington with an army plane, at any rate. Not that the two intrepid flyers are not willing, but owing to the fact that Herbert J. Fahy, the challenger, is a person not grata because of his flight over the Lincoln Memorial Tuesday afternoon while President Harding was speaking.

Fahy would escape punishment for offending the President and his audience, because there is no law which controls the movements of airplanes. But according to army officials, his commission in the army reserve corps undoubtedly will be revoked. This was the second time this has happened to the President while the Secretary of War was present.

Occurred at Williamsburg. The first time was at Williamsburg, Va., while the President was addressing a gathering at William and Mary College. A naval aviator was the offender and Secretary of War Weeks caused him to receive disciplinary action through the Navy Department. It was learned last night that Secretary Weeks will write a letter to air traffic regulations in the Department of the War Department.

District Commissioners yesterday sought legal authority to institute of Lt. Col. Sherrill not to fly over the Memorial during the ceremonies. He said he had been requested not to fly there between 2 and 3:30 o'clock and that his flight did not begin until 3:50 o'clock. He denied he knew the President was speaking at the time. He carried a photographer for a Washington morning newspaper as passenger, it is said.

Hoboes Apathetic To Leader's Call
J. Eads How's Pleas to Form Committee Fall on Reluctant Ears.

"Hobo" committees are hard to find and it is more difficult to have them "stay put," according to James Eads How, organizer of "hobo" associations, who held a meeting yesterday afternoon in Typographical Hall, 423 G street northwest.

"How" is the name and "how" can it be done? is the question. The attempt of the organizer to name a committee to carry on the work of the "moving element" met with little enthusiasm, for each nominee pleaded "wasn't going to be with us very long," the summer was near and far fields looked more inviting.

The meeting, attended by more than a score of unemployed and migratory "knights of the road," opened with a song, for music week is late this year. The grounds surrounding the temple are to be greatly beautified by a landscape architect upon the completion of the temple.

Samuel H. Beach, 47 years old, unmarried, died at 7:30 o'clock this morning at the Alexandria Hospital following a ten days' illness due to heart trouble. Estate, Gift to Church By Actress, Dedicated LAKE RONKONOMA, L. I., May 31.—With a ceremony of the presence of Archbishop John Bonzano, papal delegate at Washington, D. C.; Bishop Thomas E. Molloy, of Brooklyn, and other church dignitaries, and men distinguished in public life, the beautiful 400-acre estate, which was recently presented to the Roman Catholic Sisters of Our Lady of Cenacle by Maude Adams, famous actress, was formally dedicated here today.

Archbishop Bonzano expressed regrets at Miss Adams' inability to take part in the consecrating of the estate, which will be transformed into a new convent.

SENATE COMMITTEE GIVES FAVORABLE REPORT ON BONUS
Vote on Bill Is Likely to Wait Until Tariff Is Enacted.
IS APPROVED 9 TO 4
No Provision Made for Raising Revenue, Contrary to President's Demand.

The soldier bonus bill is at last before the Senate, where leaders say its passage at the present session of Congress is assured.

The bill was ordered favorably reported by the Finance Committee yesterday in substantially the same form as when it passed the House.

Senator McCumber, chairman of the committee, said he would seek a vote as quickly as possible. It seems likely, however, that the bill will wait until after the tariff is enacted, sometime during the summer. Leaders are averse to laying aside the tariff, and McCumber himself is disposed to let that measure have priority unless there is an unduly long delay.

CHARGE OF POLICE BRUTALITY AIRED
With his head bandaged, Louis W. Moore, 24 years old, a Canadian student at the Bliss Electrical School, appeared in Police Court yesterday morning to face a charge of having assaulted a policeman Sunday night.

Assistant District Attorney Ralph Given asked for more time to investigate the case. Judge Mattingly set the case for trial tomorrow afternoon.

Given will investigate charges that Moore assaulted a policeman and that Policemen E. C. Spaulding, Ray Bremmerman and Abe Buckingham beat Moore with their blackjacks unnecessarily. The trouble started on a Ninth street car as Moore was escorting a young woman home.

Assistant Superintendent of Police Charles Evans will make an independent investigation into the conduct of the three policemen.

LIONS CLUB HEARS MUSIC PROGRAM
"Ladies' Night" and "Music Week" were jointly observed yesterday at the weekly luncheon of the Lions' Club at the New Willard Hotel. More than seventy-five women were entertained by the musical program arranged for the observance of "Music Week." They were recipients of dainty favors.

Caleb O'Connor, former president of the club, played the piano and sang an original composition, which was well received. The Rev. George F. Dudley, chaplain, sang a special selection. The Hudson Quartet, of Detroit, here for Music Week, sang favorite selections and was concurred enthusiastically. James Schick presided.

Gen. Wood to Retain Post.
The extension of leave of absence asked for by Maj. Gen. Leonard Wood, to continue his work as Governor General of the Philippines, probably will be granted by the trustees of the University of Pennsylvania, Secretary of War Weeks stated yesterday.
